Class History

In September of 1946 twenty young musicians organized an orchestra for a four year contract under the directorship of Mr. E. J. Tuomi. A complete and pleasant career was thought of by all the enthusiastic musicians. Eighteen of the twenty members were old friends, but Joan Gates and Harlan Feller joined the happy group. They came from Great Falls. Soon the orchestra became accustomed to the habits and ways of the experienced. They put their hearts and souls into their work and this first year showed success was ahead.

Rapidly, the first year of the contract expired and all looked forward to future years. Soon summer had gone and September rapidly advanced. Instruments were tuned and polished, ready for strenuous work.

Again, the same twenty re-entered the doors of C. H. S. plus a new member. This was Don Marko, also formerly from Great Falls. One year's experience helped this merry class and they advanced quickly to a higher bracket. Still lower classmen, they had to work for all they received; endless toil was repaid by success. The second year proved still more successful than the first, and upper classmanship occupied all our thoughts.

The third year was one of greater success than the two previous ones. But this year our group decreased to eighteen, three of our classmates left and went into different fields of occupation. Harlan Feller joined the Marine Corps, Delores Konesky transferred to the Great Falls High School and Kenneth Kerkes left school to work. Now we were reaching the peak of our success, and soon we would be seniors. But during the year of 1948-1949 we achievedmuch in self-confidence, we knew what we wanted and we stuck to our ideas.

Our last year of the contract was upon us and we yearned to keep our four year term a success. Now at the top of the class bracket we were proud of our achievement. This year once more our class decreased by two, now leaving sixteen stern and gallant followers. Shirley Super transferred to Central Catholic High School while Gary Latham went to Great Falls High School. This year a new director also took his post, it was Mr. A. J. Caldwell, a former teacher. This year our hearts weren't set only on keeping our contract, but we had to publish an annual. We always tried something different, so this year we had our annual published in Texas and it turned out to be one of the greatest books put out by C. H. S. Graduation is now here and all are happy but yet sad--sad because we have to leave our happy surroundings. We have fulfilled our four year contract to the best of our knowledge, and have attained a good high school education. We shall now leave but with great pride to say that we graduated from the Centerville High School.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of Centerville, in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the FACULTY, we leave our sincere appreciation for their many efforts in helping us constitute that important part of life–education.

To the SCHOOL BOARD, CHARLES DERDA and EINO KORIN, we leave our token of thanks for their many unforgettable undertakings in helping us achieve our education.

ARTICLE II

To the other classes of the school, we leave our empty seats, our agreeable attitudes and our abilities in accomplishing our tasks.

ARTICLE III

Individually we bequeath the following:

KENNETH BETTS after deep thought decides to leave nothing.

DOUGLAS ERICKSON leaves his formula for red hair to Jim Sutich, but with dark hair, you may have to use "Rit".

PATSY ERICKSON wills her persuasiveness and getting things done to Geneal Lindsay.

JOAN GATES leaves her cheerleading "position" to Darlaine B.

BARBARA GUZA wills her temper and giggles to Shirley M.

NORAMAY HEAL leaves all singing vacancies to Greta Franklin.

EDDIE LUCOTCH wills his ability to get ads to Ken Gallik. You'll need it Ken.

BEATRICE MAPSTON leaves her black eyelashes to Fluffy. Very generous Bea, but you'd look rather odd without lashes.

DON MARKO wills his cure for a broken wrist to any football player.

STANLEY MARKO leaves his knowledge of math to Louis Pepos.

GENE MENGHINI leaves---------willingly!!!!

MIKE MIZENKO wills his basketball suit to anyone who thinks he can use it as well as he did.

EDDY PEPOS leaves his "fix it" ability to Ray Macek.

BEVERLY ROSS wills her recipe for slimness to Delores M.

JUNE SURMI leaves her small stature to Joan Francetich. You'll have to shrink a little Joan.

ANNA MAY REHOR leaves, to Gloria Lindstrand, anything she can find that is worth while.

ARTICLE IV

This, the last and final statement, will make the teachers and underclassmen very happy.---------- Yes, we the Seniors leave!!!!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this Fifteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Fifty.

Class Prophecy

A quarter of a century has passed since the graduation of my class, and off in the distance I hear music. Songs ring out from the hills, and I hear familiar voices. Voices I heard years before—in the year 1950. I recognize these voices, they are the voices of my classmates. Listen, and you will hear of their successes.

The first voice I hear is soft and sweet, that of Patsy Erickson; she is a well known dress designer in New York. Her creativeness has attained her a high position in the designers world. Mike Mizenko is the coach of the Notre Dame football team. He is very successful in this field and his teams have always been outstanding.

The music softens and I hear a soloist. A beautiful song is being sung. I remember this voice. It is the voice of Noramay Heal; she is the leading soloist in a Hollywood night club. Again the music increases in volume and tempo and I hear Eddie Lucotch. He is a banker in Chicago. Beatrice Mapston is happily married and she and her family are living on a large ranch in Texas. Gene Menghini is a very busy lawyer. His ability to argue his point has remained with him over these years.

The music rings on and I distinguish Barbara Guza'a voice off in the distance. She is a nurse in a far off China city. Don Marko has become quite an elegant country gentleman. He lives in Virginia and ownes a large tobacco plantation. Joan Gates has remained in Montana and she and her family are living on a little farm on the suburbs of Great Falls.

Listen, and above the music you will hear one of the greatest orators of this age. It is Stanley Marko; he is expressing his point of view on a woman president. Beverly Ross has become a professional dancer. Her talent has brought her much success and happiness. Eddy Pepos has just completed his invention of a new type of a plane. It is his most outstanding invention. June Surmi has been traveling all over the world painting all the well known scenes. Her paintings have brought her great wealth.

Darkness is rapidly descending, but the music continues. Yes, there are still two former classmates from whom I haven't heard. I shall listen a few minutes longer and learn of their successes. A voice speaks; it is that of Kenneth Betts. He is a florist in California; his cross-breeding of plants has made him famous. Douglas Erickson is an engineer and is planning the construction of a bridge across the Atlantic.

I have now heard from all my classmates, so I can return to my country home and rejoice over their successfulness.

Wnen "Fluffy" works she often hums;
One would think he heard snare drums.
Darlaine loves to dance and piano play,
Hopes to be professional, someday.
When questioned about music, Ralph remains mute,
Thus reminding one of a battered old flute.
Dixie, who's handy with needles and thimbles,
May someday be handy with pretty brass cymbals.
Sometimes Harvey gets under your skin,
Just like the squeak from Jack Benny's violin.
Good little Betty, who obeys the law,
Is sweet and quivery, like a musical saw.
Douglas, when asked to define xylophone, if able,
Said, "It's something you pound on and looks like a table."
Singing in opera is Greta's aim,
Who knows, she may surpass MacDonald's fame.
Teddy, the chap with the slick guitar,
May someday become a cowboy star.
Kenny, the kid with a freckled nose,
Gets his music by attending shows.
"Cubies's" attempting to equal Harry James,
In playing the trumpet and catching dames.
Marion is our country girl,
Like a baton; always in a whirl.
"Ben's" speaking voice is sweet and mellow,
Just like the music from a great big cello.
Here's our musical Ruth Korin,
She's really hep on the tambourine.
Bob Lesh has experienced many a tangle,
And gets along well on the triangle.
Gloria, who always has music in mind,
With spoons could probably keep very good time.
Bobby's the kid, who can be very lax,
Just like a beginner on his brand new sax.
Raymond Macek is very sharp,
Resembling those high notes on his grandfather's harp.
Jerry, who seems to like the organ,
Could easily become a second Dennis Morgan.
Eddy M. is the Junior class goon,
His general appearance is like a basoon.
When asked to play the English horn,
"Sissy" says, "I can't," with voice forlorn.
Jim, whose fingers fly to and fro,
Ought to be good on the 'ole banjo.
Dale, the kid who can make you laugh,
Can play anything you want on the phonograph.
When called upon to play "Home Sweet Home",
Jack brings forth paper and a comb.
If Glen and Gene can stand groans and moans,
With plenty of practice--the second "Bell Tones"

RHAPSODY IN BLUE

Social Activities

INITIATION PARTY

A party was given for the eighteen freshmen students who were frightened and unprepared for the new routines which they would have to undergo for the rest of the year. Dancing followed the entertainment and a snack of ice cream and pop was served. The party ended with a note of good fellowship and the freshmen look forward to the time when they would be the initiators.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The social circle began with the Senior party on October 26. Black and orange crepe paper were around the walls to give the assemby a Halloween spirit. A light lunch was served with apple cider. Dancing was held until eleven. A good time was had by all.

CHRISTMAS TEA

The girls of the Home Economics Department gave a Christmas Tea on December 20, 1949. Mothers and friends were invited. Tea and tea cakes were served to their guest. Our hostesses were dressed in formals, and the Tea was a great success.

FRESHMAN AND SOPHOMORE PARTY

A St. Patricks Day party was given by both classes. The assembly was decorated in the theme of St. Patricks. All students wore something green. Everybody square-danced to the music furnished by Mary Louis Funyak. A lunch of tuna fish salad and pop was served. An enjoyable time was had by all the students.

THE JUNIOR PROM

The Junior class presented the annual Junior Prom on May 12 at the high school gymnasium. The hall was decorated in the theme of "Apple Blossom Time." The grand march was led by the Junior class president, Glen Sanders. The Junior Prom was a great success.

SPRING TEA

The Home Ec. Club gave a spring tea in honor of the Senior girls in May. A glee club concert and fashion show was presented under the direction of Mrs. Cammeron. The seniors appreciated this way of saying farewell.

"THE PHANTOM TIGER"

In an old-fashioned colonial mansion, on the shore of a small lake, a young girl, Erma Lowrie, is haunted by the ghost of the "Phantom Tiger". Strange events and mysterious happenings take place to confuse Oswald, her cousin and Sophia, her aunt. Peggy Van Ess, a girl friend of Oswald and Sheriff Osgood, the local detective help make the occasion one of hilarity. The mystery is cleared up by Erma's boy friend, Detective MacIntosh and "Mystery Manor" becomes a mystery no longer.

OUR LAST WORD

As Freshmen first we come to school
We're much perplexed by book and rule
As Sophomores we're very wise
Our hats are now a larger size
In Junior year these facts appal
There's more to learn, we don't know all
In Senior year we act our parts
In making love and breaking hearts
And then into the world we come
We've made good friends and studied--some
The saddest tale we have to tell
Is when we bid our friends farewell.
